IN MEMORIAM

To keep The Torch of Liberty burning for us and - - - -
Appalachian, nine sons of Appalachian have given their full measure of devotion.
To these fellow students, we
the seniors of 1944, dedicate
this volume of the Rhododendron,
symbolizing in a meager way
our appreciation and pledging to them our determination to keep that Torch of Liberty burning so "these dead shall not have died in vain."

Carl T. Bumgarner - John Crisp - Robert Bailey Davis
Fred Cowrance - Marshal McClure - George Parrish
Matt Pasky - Herbert Poole - Heath Lee Duncan

IN WAR TIME

have continued to practice athletics still fairly and squarely. Despite the fact that our interests have oftentimes shifted to other channels, we preserve our organizations and attempt to make them even stronger. Despite high costs and the many economic problems war brings, we do not wish to relinquish our features but retain them even in a more simple form.

Yes, we must admit that Appalachian has changed physically, but that undying spirit still remains—remains to welcome home you sons and daughters of Appalachian, who are fighting to maintain such a spirit throughout the world.

APPALACHIAN

Nestled deep in the heart of the Appalachian hills rested a spot of quiet solitude and seclusion, free from the rushing turmoil of time's everflowing current. So close to and such an integral part of the beauties of God's firmament is this spot that one's very soul and nature is seemingly cleaner and more pure from the contact. Thriving by and echoing the merry laughter and carefree atmosphere created by the presence of youth, strong with the desire and common will for a greater wisdom has been our campus—Appalachian.

But now the present crisis affecting every phase of American life even the most remote and secluded places has made our Appalachian no exception. Our constant motto has been "to retain that traditional spirit despite the inevitable" and through persistence we have succeeded. Despite troubled and confused minds, we have continued to study and gain knowledge. Despite innumerable handicaps, we

A black and white photograph of a line of nine young women, likely a basketball team, standing in a row against a plain, light-colored background. They are all wearing matching white athletic uniforms consisting of short-sleeved jerseys and shorts. The women are arranged in a slightly staggered line, with their heads and shoulders visible. The woman on the far right is holding a basketball with both hands. The image has a vintage, slightly grainy quality.

BOONE, N. C.

Dear Margaret,

As one old maid to another, keep your chin up. Don't you get a diamond, as I don't want to be the only old maid of A. S. I. C.

Hon, you're a swell kid, and we've really had some ~~wonderful~~ times together. Be good to my old pal, Kat, and don't beat her too much next year. If we aren't too noisy next year, maybe you'll get around to visiting us.

Drop me a card sometime and let me know whether you decide on the wings or Frankie Daddy (that is if you can find time between your epistles to your boyfriends).

Be good, never let studies interfere with your college education, and think of me once in a while —

Love to Punky,
"Rosie"

May 4, 1944

Dearest Margaret,

you have been so nice to me this year Hon. I just can't begin to tell you how much I appreciate the things you and ~~Frank~~ <sup>Frank</sup> have done for me. First, I have you two to thank for knowing Charlie.

Margaret, your mother and father are so nice. I really did enjoy my visit at your home Christmas and at the end of the quarter. I want you to come to see me the month of May. I wish I weren't going to Florida, because I really will miss you. Maybe, we can make up for it next year. Just think a great big room by ourselves.

I certainly will be proud of you Saturday afternoon and I know Frank, and your mother and father will be too.

Margaret, even tho' we ain't sisters we can claim each other, can't we? So long to a sweet girl. Don't forget to come to see me. Love
Haw

Lois Wallace

Dear Margaret,

You're one sweet girl and I've really enjoyed knowing you. I saw you around last year but I didn't <sup>really</sup> know you until this year.

You and Frank really make a cute couple. It's not natural to see one without the other. So remember that!

Next year will be on third floor and you won't have so much trouble getting to our room. We'll be just around the corner. Remember all the good times we've had and our fears.

She'll be proud of you Saturday. You and Dot will look sweet together.

Be good and stay sweet.

Love you

Lois Wallace.

P.S. just heard the news about what may happen this summer. Be sure and write me about it. I'll be waiting to hear from you.

Next year, we'll try to be good girls and not break too many rules.

Here's to one of the best.

No more art.
Thank goodness.
